Code of Conduct for Managers & Coaches

As managers and coaches of the McHenry Pigtail League, you have a special responsibility to the program. Your actions at the games and practices influence the girls, spectators and the program in general. Therefore, the following criteria are necessary to create a better program and a positive experience for everyone.

A manager or coach will:

- Instruct, to the best of their ability, the game of softball, in accordance with the rules adopted by the McHenry Pigtail League.
- Treat all members of their team equally, encouraging each girl to develop to her maximum potential.
- Instill in the girls the meaning and practice of team participation and good sportsmanship.
- Coordinate and encourage their team members' participation in all league- sponsored activities.
- Conduct themselves in an appropriate manner by not using profanity or not making other derogatory remarks about an umpire, manager, coach, player, or any other person while in the presence of their team.
- Play the game in accordance with the rules of the McHenry Pigtail League.
- Be responsible for all League issued equipment and its return at the end of the season.
- The manager or approved designated representative MUST be present at all general meetings. Failure to do so will result in the reduction of seniority points.

I the undersigned manager, or coach, have read the above and agree to conduct myself within the guidelines of the code and Bylaws as set forth by the League.
